Sec. 327.001. DEFINITION. The term does not include a designated state or federal highway or road or a designated county road.

Sec. 327.002. MUNICIPAL SALES AND USE TAX ACT APPLICABLE. Except to the extent that a provision of this chapter applies, Chapter 321 applies to the tax authorized by this chapter in the same manner as that chapter applies to the tax authorized by that chapter.

Added by Acts 2001, 77th Leg., ch. 464, Sec. 1, eff. June 11, 2001.

Sec. 327.003. TAX AUTHORIZED. (a) A municipality may adopt the sales and use tax authorized by this chapter at an election held in the municipality.

(c) If the voters of a municipality approve the adoption of the tax or the increase in the rate of the tax at an election held on the same election date on which another political subdivision adopts a sales and use tax or approves the increase in the rate of its sales and use tax and as a result the combined rate of all sales and use taxes imposed by the municipality and other political subdivisions of this state having territory in the municipality would exceed two percent at any location in the municipality, the election to adopt a sales and use tax under this chapter has no

Sec. 327.007. REAUTHORIZATION OF TAX. (a) Unless imposition of the sales and use tax authorized by this chapter is reauthorized as provided by this section, the tax expires on:

(1) the fourth anniversary of the date the tax originally took effect under Section 327.005;

(2) the first day of the first calendar quarter

occurring after the fourth anniversary of the date the tax was last reauthorized under this section if, at that election, the voters approved the imposition of the tax for a period that expires on that anniversary;

(2-a) if the tax is imposed in a municipality that is intersected by two interstate highways, that has a population of 150,000 or more, and in which at least 66 percent of the voters voting in each of the last two consecutive elections concerning the adoption or reauthorization of the tax favored adoption or reauthorization, and that tax has not expired as provided by Subdivision (1) or (2) since the first of those two consecutive elections, the last day of the first calendar quarter occurring after the eighth anniversary of the date the tax was last reauthorized under this section if, at that election, the voters approved the imposition of the tax for a period that expires on that anniversary instead of the period described by Subdivision (2); or

(3) if the tax is imposed in a general-law municipality with a population of 10,000 or more surrounded entirely by a municipality with a population of 1.3 million or more, the last day of the first calendar quarter occurring after the 10th anniversary of the date the tax was last reauthorized under this section if, at that election, the voters approved the imposition of the tax for a period that expires on that anniversary instead of the period described by Subdivision (2).

(b) An election to reauthorize the tax is called and held in the same manner as an election to adopt the tax under Section 327.006, except the ballot proposition shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The reauthorization of the local sales and use tax in (name of municipality) at the rate of (insert appropriate rate) to continue providing revenue for maintenance and repair of municipal streets. The tax expires on the (insert fourth, eighth, or 10th) anniversary of the date of this election unless the imposition of the tax is reauthorized."

(c) If an election to reauthorize the tax is not held before the tax expires as provided by Subsection (a), or if a majority of the votes cast in an election to reauthorize the tax do not favor reauthorization, the municipality may not call an election on the question of authorizing a new tax under this chapter before the first anniversary of the date on which the tax expired.

(d) Not later than the 10th day after the date the municipality determines that the tax will expire as provided by Subsection (a), the municipality shall notify the comptroller of the scheduled expiration. The comptroller may delay the scheduled expiration date if the comptroller notifies the municipality that more time is required. The comptroller must provide a new expiration date that is not later than the last day of the first calendar quarter occurring after the notification to the comptroller.
